OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C. February 4th, 1881

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 2nd inst requesting to be furnished with certain kinds of wrapping paper for the Coiner's use, I would say that articles of this kind should always be drawn upon stationery requisitions but, as the brown paper asked for is not kept in stock you are authorized to purchase it in your city: also the envelope paper, if you can purchase at a price not exceeding $2.75 per ream, otherwise make a regular requisition for the same on the stationery form.

Very respectfully
Horatio C. Burchard
